

Scripture this week:

1 Peter 1:3-5

<sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, <sup>4</sup>to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, <sup>5</sup>who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

Why Did God Kill so Many People in the Old Testament?

1 Peter 1:3-5

Todd Chapman - July 26, 2020

Both the OT and NT promote the same truths about God. He is love and He is righteous. However, there is an increasing clarity as we move from the OT to the NT. The Old Testament lays the foundation for Jesus, THE SAVIOR. The Old Testament points to the essential nature of Jesus' death and resurrection.

- God loves everyone.
- God hates sin.
- God's righteousness demands that sinners be punished. His righteous wrath poured out.
- God's love and righteousness moves Him to provide a sacrifice for our sin.
- Faith is the key to a relationship with God.
- God does hold unforgiven sinners accountable for their lack of faith.
- God is devoted to the ultimate good of those who love Him.
