

Revelation 21:1-4

¹ Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ² And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³ And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. ⁴ He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away."

Forever With Him Revelation 21:1-4

Todd Chapman - September 3, 2017

The great culmination of our journey with God though faith in Jesus is to spend eternity in His immediate presence. Heaven. The unambiguous teaching of Scripture is that there is absolutely nothing better. Though the unmistakable truth is that the best is yet to come, not everyone seems that excited about it.

- Tentative/Fearful
- Bored
- Hope filled expectation

Questions for Discussion:

Notes:

Revelation 21:1-4

What does it mean?

1. Where have we been thus far in the series?
2. How does the theme "forever with Him" fit into the over all scheme of the series?
3. What is the significance of God's dwelling place being with God?
4. Are there themes in Revelation 21:1-4 that we have seen throughout the 20/20 series?
5. Who is the bride in verse 2?
6. What's the big idea of Revelation 21:1-4?

How does it apply?

1. How does this picture of this future reality affect our current circumstances?
2. How does the continuity of the whole bible seen in Revelation 21:1-4 help us see the relevance of the entire bible to us?
3. How has the 20/20 series encouraged us to see a bigger picture of who God is?