

Scripture this week:

Acts 6:1-5

¹ Now in these days when the disciples were increasing in number, a complaint by the Hellenists arose against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. ² And the twelve summoned the full number of the disciples and said, "It is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables. ³ Therefore, brothers, pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we will appoint to this duty. ⁴ But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." ⁵ And what they said pleased the whole gathering, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch.

Stephen: A Model for Preaching?

Acts 6:1-9:5

Todd Chapman - July 7, 2019

- Stephen was a humble servant.
- Stephen displayed the grace of God.
- Stephen knew and confidently conveyed the faithfulness of God.
- Stephen fearlessly challenged those who needed to be challenged for their benefit.
- Stephen was focused on Jesus in the midst of intense persecution.
- Stephen was passionately concerned about others meeting Jesus.
- Stephen's faith expressed was used in ways he could have never anticipated.
- Stephen's faith expressed was a testimony to others of the power of the gospel.
