

Scripture this week:

Matthew 13:31-33

³¹He put another parable before them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field. ³²It is the smallest of all seeds, but when it has grown it is larger than all the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.” ³³He told them another parable. “The kingdom of heaven is like leaven that a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till it was all leavened.”

The Leaven
Matthew 13:31-33
Todd Chapman - July 8, 2018

The kingdom of heaven is here now, but will not always be very obvious. So, don't miss it, because its impact is life transforming and it will eventually be unmistakably obvious.

What is it?

Why isn't it obvious?

When will it be unmistakably obvious?
